To whom it may concern

I am writing in support of the “Bank Reform Now” submission and recommended actions.

Specifically the areas they raise concerning corporate governance, consumer protection, financial regulation and how people's lives are impacted by these being ignored to enable banks to profit while engaging in criminal activities.

Yours sincerely

Paul Penberthy

Sent from Surface Pro