

From: Graeme Wass
Sent: Tuesday, 17 January 2012 5:00 PM
To: CCAAC
Subject: re:Gift card reform

Dear Sir

I believe that a person who is the bearer of a gift card should be treated as if the card was cash regardless of how long ago it was bought. The amount of money was outlaid by the giver initially and the bearer should not have any restrictions applied when it comes to redeeming this gift.

regards
Graeme Wass