

Consultation

MRRT and related measures Repeal

Name

Tara Broadley

Submission text

Cutting the school kids bonus would have a massive impact on families, esp low income and single parent families, take money from other places or even simply half the amount and make the payments directly to the schools. I can't imagine the amount of children that will go without the basics, and be singled out as the poor kid.