

I submit that the Government seek to make the Small Business Instant Asset Write-Off an ongoing feature of the Australian income tax system or at least extend it by three years.

Removing or extending the cut-off date would be welcome news to many Uber drivers and other small business operators. It would help with cash-flow and reduce impediments to drivers regularly updating cars and other capital purchases.

Thankyou for your time and consideration.