Meeting 31.1.11 Warrnambool EO

Bill has collected approx 6,000 signatures on a petition re price of fuel in Colac, which is monopolized by Safeway and Coles fuel outlets. He commenced his campaign in October 2010. Terry Mulder's assistant June has been very helpful. (If necessary June would provide a file)

Bill is a very strong Liberal supporter. Mayor of Colac Brian Crooks and Darren Cheeseman not interested.

Bill advises many of the signatories of the petition are from Cobden (Wannon Electorate), as they do their shopping in Colac. The Colac Herald (Jennifer Chu) has also been supportive.

DT undertook to travel to Colac 1.2.2011 for Bill to present the petition to him. Details as follows:

Meeting 3pm 1 February, 2011

Location: John Blain Newsagency (Opposite Coles & Target) main street Colac.

Bill to hand DT petition of approx 6,000 signatures re: petrol prices in Colac.

The petition reads:

This petition of the residents of Colac and District draws to the attention of the House that the price of petrol in Colac appears to be set by two major food retailers and there is no effective competition between them

We therefore ask the House to: take positive action to provide the residents of Colac and District with a fair pricing structure for fuel and call on the Government to investigate the practice of monopoly fuel outlets and their impact on rural communities.

Fuel price anger

Farmer Brown takes on two retail giants

COLAC

By PETER COLLINS

IN a David and Goliath confrontation, 74-year-old Colac farmer Bill Brown is tackling retail giants Coles and Woolworths over their control of the fuel market.

In three months he and a small team of volunteers have collected almost 6000 signatures on a petition to be tabled in federal Parliament calling for the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission to investigate how the duopoly affects rural communities.

"The ACCC must penetrate this power to find out what is going on," Mr Brown said yesterday.

"A lot of people in the Colac region buy their petrol in Geelong because it's cheaper and when they do they shop there as well which hurts Colac businesses.

"Here in Colac petrol prices are controlled by the Coles and Safeway outlets and their discount dockets.

"My passion to get a petition going started late last year when a friend bought petrol at Lakes Entrance cheaper than Colac even though it is further away from Melbourne.

"It's surprised me how well the petition has been supported. We gathered signatures from as far as Cobden and Apollo Bay."

In a twist on the practice of local MPs handling constituents' issues, Mr Brown overlooked his local ALP member for Corangamite Darren Cheeseman and called Liberal member for Wannon Dan Tehan to Colac to receive the petition.

"My local member has never shown any interest in Colac petrol prices. His area covers Geelong where petrol is always cheaper," Mr Brown said.

Mr Tehan said he would deliver the petition to Parliament House next week and expected to get the opportunity to speak on the issue in the next few weeks.

"I'll be calling for the ACCC to take action and investigate," he said. "It is yet to be proven if the supermarket docket discount system really leads to cheaper prices.

"The industry says fuel transportation costs is the key to petrol prices, but why is petrol dearer in Colac than in Warrnambool for instance which is further away.

"There's nothing wrong with transparency on prices and hopefully all petrol outlets in Colac give a fairer pricing system."
