Protection for Centrelink customers (ToR 1.7)	The ASIC report found that 62 per cent of the loans ASIC reviewed triggered one of the presumptions of unsuitability and there was not enough information on file to show how the lender had rebutted the presumption that the loan was unsuitable. This raised concerns that SACCs are still being used by consumers as part of their monthly budget.	Treasury is not aware of any consumer concerns with this requirement.	Treasury is not aware of any industry concerns with this requirement.
