Hi Section 22

Please note ASIC's email below – they plan to issue a media release today letting people know about the delay to the choice dashboard and portfolio holdings disclosure regimes.

I suggest we let<sup>S22</sup> and the<sup>Section 22</sup> know as well – just to clarify that the package of reforms itself has still not been announced. My suggested email words to<sup>Section 22</sup> are below.

Section 22

Today ASIC will issue a media release announcing that the start date for two superannuation reforms – the choice product dashboard and portfolio holdings disclosure regimes, both which increase the transparency of superannuation information – will be delayed until 1 July 2016.

These reforms were due to commence on 1 July 2015.

Hi Section 22

Just a quick email to let you know that we're planning on issuing a media release today just to let people know about the dashboard and portfolio holdings deferrals (and a few other deferral matters as well, including long-term performance reporting). A draft of the media release is attached below: - we're expecting it will go out today, subject to final sign offs this morning.

Thanks so much.

Kind regards
