Dear Mr Davies

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST

I refer to your revised request of 2 December 2014 under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the Act), seeking:

"All records (including e-mails, text messages, memos, file notes, letters, source documents, reference documents, advices, briefing papers, working papers, position papers, documented analysis, reports or other documentation) held in the Commonwealth Treasury Department relating to the preparation, and/or publishing, of "Box 1.1: Regulatory treatment of the sharing economy the example of Uber", on page 19 of the Competition Policy Review Draft Report September 2014 (ISBN 978-1-925220-08-07)."

I am an authorised decision maker under section 23 of the Act. This letter sets out my decision and reasons for the decision in relation to your application.

Materials Relevant to Making of Decision

The materials, information and advice to which I have had reference in making this decision are:

- the terms of your FOI request;
- advice provided by Treasury officers;
- the relevant provisions of the Act;
- guidelines issued by the Australian Information Commissioner; and
- the contents of the documents relevant to your request (as set out in the attached schedule).

Decision

I have identified 47 documents relevant to your request. Of these, 8 documents will be released in full and 39 documents will be released in part. A schedule of each document and details of my decision in relation to each document is attached. My reasons for this decision are set out below.

Reasons for Decision

Where the schedule of documents (attached) indicates an exemption claim has been applied to a document or part of a document, my findings of fact and reasons for deciding that the exemption provision applies to that document or part of document are set out below.

Exemptions claimedSection 22 – material irrelevant to the request

Subparagraph 22(1)(a)(ii) of the Act allows an agency to delete irrelevant material from a document which is only partially relevant to an applicant's FOI request. Where section 22 is listed against a document in the attached schedule, I have found that the document contains material which is irrelevant to your FOI request. I have withheld or deleted that material accordingly.

As previously advised, the Treasury considers the names, email addresses and other contact details of public service officers to be irrelevant to an FOI request. These details will not be released pursuant to section 22 of the Act. You have not been charged for any redactions to documents required as a result of this practice.

Charges

The preliminary assessment of the charge for processing your request was $29.00. On 10 December 2014 we received payment of charges in full. A receipt for this payment has been sent to you.

Rights of Review

In accordance with paragraph 26(1)(c) of the Act, a statement setting out your rights of review under the Act is attached.

The Treasury publishes all documents disclosed in response to FOI requests (other than personal or business information that would be unreasonable to publish) on the Treasury website at the same time as the applicant receives the response. This is consistent with the arrangements established by section 11C of the Act, which formally commenced operation on 1 May 2011.

Yours sincerely
