Hi Section 22

I've inserted the below dot points on portfolio holdings disclosure into the linked document – they are also provided below for information. We have kept the points unclassified. Happy to provide additional information if required.

Regards,
Section 22

- A Government decision on superannuation portfolio holdings disclosure is imminent. We understand ASIC would need to issue an additional class order delaying commencement of the reforms (for example, from 1 July 2015 to 1 July 2016) if there is no Government announcement by early March.
 - Once a Government decision is made, Treasury will work with ASIC to develop the details around the disclosure of portfolio holdings, in consultation with other stakeholders.
