33	prescribed by the regulations for the purpose of this
34	paragraph in relation to a class of derivatives that includes
35	the derivatives to which the transactions relate.

Amendments relating to derivative transactions Schedule 1

1	Meaning of reporting requirements
2 3 4	(6) For the purpose of this Chapter, reporting requirements are requirements for information about derivative transactions, or about positions relating to derivative transactions, to be reported to:
5 6 7	 (a) a licensed derivative trade repository, the licence for which authorises the repository to provide services in respect of a class of derivatives that includes the derivatives to which the
8	transactions relate; or
9	(b) a facility that is (or that is in a class of facilities that is)
10 11	prescribed by the regulations for the purpose of this paragraph in relation to a class of derivatives that includes
12	the derivatives to which the transactions relate.
13	Meaning of clearing requirements
14	(7) For the purpose of this Chapter, clearing requirements are
15	requirements for derivative transactions to be cleared through:
16	(a) a licensed CS facility, the licence for which authorises the
17	facility to provide services in respect of a class of financial
18	products that includes the derivatives to which the
19	transactions relate; or
20	(b) a facility that is (or that is in a class of facilities that is)
21	prescribed by the regulations for the purpose of this
22 23	paragraph in relation to a class of derivatives that includes the derivatives to which the transactions relate.
24	Rules cannot generally impose requirements retrospectively
25	(8) The derivative transaction rules:
26	(a) cannot impose an execution requirement on a person in
27	relation to a transaction entered into before the requirement
28	started to apply to the person; and
29	(b) cannot impose a reporting requirement on a person in relation
30	to a transaction entered into before the requirement started to
31	apply to the person, or in relation to a position as it was at a
32	time before the requirement started to apply to the person;
33	and
34	(c) cannot impose a clearing requirement on a person in relation
35	to a transaction entered into before the requirement started to
36	apply to the person, unless the transaction has not been

Schedule 1 Amendments relating to derivative transactions

1 2	cleared by the time the requirement starts to apply to the person.
3 4	901B Derivatives in relation to which rules may impose requirements
5 6	Requirements can only be imposed in relation to derivatives covered by a determination under this section
7 8 9 10 11	(1) The derivative transaction rules cannot impose execution requirements, reporting requirements, or clearing requirements, in relation to derivative transactions unless the derivatives to which the transactions relate are covered by a determination under this section that relates to requirements of that kind.
12 13	Minister may determine classes of derivatives in relation to which requirements may be imposed
14 15 16 17	(2) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, determine one or more classes of derivatives in relation to which execution requirements, reporting requirements, or clearing requirements, may be imposed.
18 19	Note 1: Different determinations may be made in relation to the different kinds of requirements.
20 21 22 23 24 25	 Note 2: A class of derivatives can be described by reference to any matter, including (for example): (a) the kind of asset, rate, index or commodity to which the derivatives relate; or (b) the time when the derivatives were issued, or their date of maturity.
26	Making determinations: matters to which the Minister has regard
27 28 29 30 31	 (3) In considering whether to make a determination under subsection (2) that would have the effect of allowing the derivative transaction rules to impose requirements of a particular kind in relation to certain derivatives, the Minister: (a) must have regard to: (b) the likely affect on the Australian accommute and on the sector of the likely affect on the Australian accommute and on the sector of the likely affect on the Australian accommute and on the sector of the likely affect on the Australian accommute and on the sector of the likely affect on the Australian accommute and an the sector of the likely affect on the Australian accommute and an the sector of the likely affect on the Australian accommute and accommute and accommute accomm

1	rules to impose requirements of that kind in relation to
2	those derivatives; and
3	(ii) the likely regulatory impact of allowing the derivative
4	transaction rules to impose requirements of that kind in
5	relation to those derivatives; and
6 7	(b) may have regard to any other matters that the Minister considers relevant.
8 9	Note: Matters that the Minister may have regard to under paragraph (b) may, for example, include:
10	(a) any relevant international standards and international
11	commitments; and (b) matters raised in consultations under subsection (4) or in advice
12 13	(b) matters raised in consultations under subsection (4), or in advice under subsection (6).
14	Making determinations: obligation to consult
15	(4) The Minister must not make a determination under subsection (2)
16	unless the Minister has consulted ASIC, APRA and the Reserve
17	Bank of Australia about the proposed determination.
18	(5) A failure to consult as required by subsection (4) does not
19	invalidate a determination.
20	ASIC, APRA or Reserve Bank may advise Minister
21 22	(6) ASIC, APRA or the Reserve Bank of Australia may (on its own initiative or at the request of the Minister):
23	(a) consider whether a determination should be made under subsection (2) that would have the effect of allowing the
24 25	derivative transaction rules to impose requirements of a
25 26	particular kind in relation to certain derivatives; and
27	(b) advise the Minister accordingly.
28	Amendment and revocation of determinations
29	(7) The Minister may amend or revoke a determination under
30	subsection (2) in like manner and subject to like conditions (see
31	subsections 33(3) and (3AA) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901).
32	901C Regulations may limit the transactions in relation to which
33	rules may impose requirements
34	The regulations may provide that the derivative transaction rules:

Schedule 1 Amendments relating to derivative transactions

Subdivision C——The process of making of derivative transaction rules

3	901H Matters to which ASIC must have regard when making rules
4 5	In considering whether to make a derivative transaction rule, ASIC:
	(a) must have regard to:
6
7 8 9	 (i) the likely effect of the proposed rule on the Australian economy, and on the efficiency, integrity and stability of the Australian financial system; and
-	•
10	(ii) the likely regulatory impact of the proposed rule; and
11 12	(b) may have regard to any other matters that ASIC considers relevant.
13 14	Note: Matters that ASIC may have regard to under paragraph (b) may, for example, include:
15	(a) any relevant international standards and international
16	commitments; and
17	(b) matters raised in consultations (if any) under section 901J.
18	901J ASIC to consult before making rules
19	(1) ASIC must not make a derivative transaction rule unless ASIC:
20	(a) has consulted the public about the proposed rule; and
21	(b) has also consulted the following about the proposed rule:
22	(i) APRA;
23	(ii) the Reserve Bank of Australia;
24	(iii) any other person or body as required by regulations
25	made for the purpose of this subparagraph.
26	Note: In some situations, consultation is not required: see section 901L.
27	(2) Without limiting the ways in which ASIC may comply with the
28	obligation in paragraph (1)(a) to consult the public about a
29	proposed rule, ASIC is taken to comply with that obligation if
30	ASIC, on its website:
31	(a) makes the proposed rule, or a description of the content of
32	the proposed rule, available; and
33	(b) invites the public to comment on the proposed rule.

Amendments relating to derivative transactions Schedule 1

1 2	(3) A failure to consult as required by subsection (1) does not invalidate a derivative transaction rule.
3	901K Ministerial consent to rules required
4 5	(1) ASIC must not make a derivative transaction rule unless the Minister has consented, in writing, to the making of the rule.
6	Note: In some situations, consent is not required: see section 901L.
7	(2) A consent under subsection (1) is not a legislative instrument.
8	901L Emergency rules: consultation and consent not required
9 10	(1) ASIC may make a derivative transaction rule without consulting as required by section 901J, and without the consent of the Minister
11 12	as required by section 901K, if ASIC is of the opinion that it is necessary, or in the public interest, to do so in order to protect:
13	(a) the Australian economy; or
14 15	(b) the efficiency, integrity and stability of the Australian financial system.
16	(2) However, if ASIC does so, ASIC must:
17 18	(a) provide the Minister, on the following day, with a written explanation of the need for the rule; and
19 20	(b) amend or revoke the rule in accordance with any written directions of the Minister.
21	(3) A direction under paragraph (2)(b) is not a legislative instrument.
22	901M Amendment and revocation of derivative transaction rules
23 24 25	(1) ASIC may amend or revoke a derivative transaction rule in like manner and subject to like conditions (see subsections 33(3) and (3AA) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901).
26 27 28	(2) However, the requirements of sections 901H, 901J and 901K do not apply in relation to an amendment or revocation pursuant to a direction by the Minister under paragraph 901L(2)(b).

Division 3—Regulation of licensed derivative trade repositories: supervision by ASIC

902A ASI	IC to supervise licensed derivative trade repositories
(1)	ASIC has the function of supervising licensed derivative trade repositories.
(2)	If a licensed derivative trade repository is wholly or partly operated in a foreign country, ASIC may, to such extent as ASIC considers appropriate, perform the function of supervising the repository by satisfying itself:
	(a) that the regulatory regime that applies in relation to the repository in that country provides for adequate supervision of the repository; or
	(b) that adequate cooperative arrangements are in place with an appropriate authority of that country to ensure that the repository will be adequately supervised by that authority.

Amendments relating to derivative transactions Schedule 1

1 Subdivision B—Granting of licences

2	905B	How to apply for a licence
3 4 5 6		A body corporate may, by lodging an application with ASIC in the prescribed form, apply for a licence (an Australian derivative trade repository licence) authorising the body corporate to operate a derivative trade repository.
7 8		Note 1: See section 350 for how to lodge an application in the prescribed form.
9		Note 2: For fees in respect of lodging applications, see Part 9.10.
10	905C	When a licence may be granted
11		General
12 13		(1) ASIC may grant an applicant an Australian derivative trade repository licence if ASIC is satisfied that:
14 15		(a) the application was made in accordance with section 905B; and
16 17		(b) the applicant will comply with the obligations that will apply if the licence is granted; and
18 19		(c) no disqualified individual appears to be involved in the applicant (see Division 2 of Part 7.4).
20		This subsection has effect subject to subsections (2) and (3).
21 22		Note: ASIC must also have regard to the matters in section 905P in deciding whether to grant a licence.
23		Foreign bodies
24 25 26		(2) If the applicant is a foreign body corporate, ASIC must not grant the applicant a licence unless the applicant is registered under Division 2 of Part 5B.2.
27		Disqualified individuals
28 29 30 31		(3) ASIC must not grant the applicant a licence unless 42 days have passed since the application was made and ASIC has not given a notice under subsection 853D(2) to the applicant within that 42 days.

Schedule 1 Amendments relating to derivative transactions

1	905D	Publication of notice of licence grant
2 3		If ASIC grants an Australian derivative trade repository licence, ASIC must publish a notice in the Gazette stating:
4		(a) the name of the licensee; and
5		(b) when the licence was granted; and
6		(c) the conditions on the licence.
7 8	905E	More than one derivative trade repository covered by the same licence
9 10 11		 The same Australian derivative trade repository licence may authorise the licensee to operate 2 or more derivative trade repositories.
12		(2) In that case, a reference in this Chapter to the derivative trade
13		repository to which an Australian derivative trade repository
14		licence relates is taken instead to be a reference to each of those
15		derivative trade repositories severally.
16		(3) Before varying the conditions on an Australian derivative trade
17 18		repository licence so as to add another derivative trade repository that the licensee is authorised to operate, ASIC must be satisfied of
19		the matters listed in subsection $905C(1)$ in relation to the
20		repository.
21		(4) An Australian derivative trade repository licence that authorises the
22		licensee to operate 2 or more derivative trade repositories may be
23		suspended or cancelled under Subdivision D in respect of one or
24		some of those repositories only, as if the licensee held a separate
25		licence for each of the repositories.

2	notice in the Gazette with details of the action and when it took
3	effect.
4 5	Note: As well as the requirements in this section, ASIC must also have regard to the matters in section 905P.
6	(2) ASIC may do so:
7	(a) on its own initiative, subject to subsection (3); or
8	(b) if the licensee lodges an application with ASIC in the
9	prescribed form, seeking the imposition of the conditions or
10	additional conditions, or seeking the variation or revocation
11	of conditions.
12 13	Note 1: See section 350 for how to lodge an application in the prescribed form.
14	Note 2: For fees in respect of lodging applications, see Part 9.10.
15	(3) ASIC may only impose conditions or additional conditions, or vary
16	or revoke conditions, on the licence on ASIC's own initiative if:
17	(a) ASIC considers it appropriate to do so having regard to:
18	(i) the licensee's obligations as a derivative trade
19	repository licensee under this Part; and
20	(ii) any change in the operations of the derivative trade
21	repository, or in the conditions in which the repository
22	is operating; and
23	(b) ASIC gives the licensee written notice of the proposed action
24	and an opportunity to make a submission before it takes
25	effect.
26	This subsection does not apply to ASIC imposing conditions when
27	a licence is granted.
28	(4) ASIC must ensure that each Australian derivative trade repository
29	licence is subject to conditions that specify:
30	(a) the particular derivative trade repository that the licensee is
31	authorised to operate; and
32	(b) the class or classes of derivatives in respect of which the
33	repository can provide services for the purposes of this Part.
34	Note: The licence condition required by paragraph (b) does not apply to
35 36	services that a licensed derivative trade repository provides otherwise
30	than for the purposes of this Part.
