

No to bail in of Banks and No to bail out of Banks they are just stealing money off hard working public programs. What is really needed to be put in place is Glass-steagall as soon as possible to save the Australian economy.