

I do not want our Government to implement “Bail-in” legislation into this country, or, for that matter, “ring fencing” legislation. I request that our Government implement a strict Glass-Steagall separation of ordinary banking from speculation for our banking systems operation in Australia.