

Financial Systems Inquiry Submission

22 August 2014

Dear Mr. Murray,

After reading the article regarding the FSI's agenda along with the No to 'bail-in' of bank deposits, it is in the best interest that we finally adopt the Glass-Steagall separation of real banking and make it quite clear to Mr Joe Hockey in a submission regarding FSI.

There must be and has to be a better solution than the one currently in operation which truly benefits the wolf of London and Wall Street. It is quite extraordinary that these sharks are allowed to operate in such a manner especially in this current time of events which all indicates to a diabolical times ahead on a global scale.

Kind Regards

Nick Chatzitaskas
