

In relation to the High Risk Investments from the Major Banks in Australia - To Big To Fail - Attitude - "The Bail-In Act" being discussed at the G-20 Summit is a "Very Big No" - "Australians Do Not Want this Act." - It is very apparent that the Average Australian is Kept in the Dark by Our Politicians, "Nothing is Released to the Media" - "In Fact Nothing"?? - The taking of the Public's Money from their Accounts then issuing - "So Called Bank Shares" - Being worth Less when converted to Cash - "It is Criminal to One's Intelligence".

"Australia Says No to the Bail-In Act" /// - Australia requires a "Central Bank" where all "Personal Deposits are Safe" from the "High Risk Investments" of the "Trading Banking Sector" - "Australia Demands" the "Glass-Seagall Banking System" that was incorporated by "Franklin Roosevelt - 1933" - "One Central Bank" - separate from the "To Big To Fail Banks" - where all Deposits are Guaranteed to the Depositors - "Enough is Enough" - There is To Much Dictatorship from this Government, - "ALL ON WAY" for the "High End Of Town" - "Remember People Vote" - This will be a Political Issue - "In doing so Will Cost" the LNP - Their "Political Careers in Office" - Trusting You All Understand Australian's Concerns. - - - - Regards - Mike Maher - Principal.
