

Introducing Glass Steagall act that was used in USA is what this country needs to avoid our too big too fail banks from destroying our economy. They must separate commercial banking from investment banking and this is far better than going for a Cyprus style Bail-in.