

Submission to the FSI

Dear Sirs,

I am opposed to the bail-in of public savings being made into law and propose that a Glass-Steagall separation of public savings from speculative banking be adopted to protect savings from the too big-to-fail banks.

Suzann V