

TERRY APPS

41 CASTLECREAGH ST

TAHMOOR 2573

The financial system languishes concerning, to big to fail banks.
I won't bash your ear about BAILIN you know what it did to the people & country of Cyprus & what it will do here, only a fool would leave their money in a bank with bailin in place.

Bank regulation kept the banks honest while in place, since it was dropped they have gambled our money & been more interested in the golden calfe. The best interest for every one except the banks is the Glass-Steagall act of the U.S.A in the 1930's there was no way around it. If bail in is put in place a collapse of the banks is expected.

yours

G. J. Apps