Dear Sir,

I can only echo the report by the Citizens Electoral Council which I have enclosed, to appeal to you, to strongly recommend the "Glass-Steagall Act" solution, which completely separate³ commercial banking from investment and "speculative" banking.

There has also been proposed in the United Kingdom a "Vickers ring fencing" separation, which has been opposed by a number of eminent people, including former Chancellor of the Exchequer Lord Lawson, on the grounds that it was subject to subversion and didn't go anywhere near tight enough.

Tragically what Bill Clinton (USA) unleashed when he repealed the Glass-Steagall Act, was plain for all the world to see. See a DVD by Mike Moore called "The Corporation."

Australia NEEDS a national bank, set up exactly the same as the original Commonwealth Bank. I still have a copy of the Commonwealth Bank's Charter which at this stage I don't intend to relinquish.

Please act for the welfare of ALL Australians.

Thank you.

Yours faithfully
