

John Watson
152B South Coast Hwy
Mckail
WA 6330

David Murray
Financial System Inquiry

Dear Sir

I have long been of the opinion that the banks are in the robbery business with regard to their fees and charges but I now learn that through something called bail-in they will soon be able to steal from the depositors accounts and do it with government approval. When there is the glaringly obvious alternative of a Glass-Steagall style separation of commercial banking from the gambling antics of investment banking.

Yours faithfully

John Watson

19 August 2014