

How are items such as condoms, lubricants and sunscreen exempt from the GST however tampons and pads are not?! Taxing females for having their period is sexist and unfair.

This inclusion is clearly revenue driven and in no way considers half the population.