Dear Mr Hackett-Jones

Thank you for your letter and DVD of 28 October 2008 to the Treasurer about the Revenue Review Foundation's tax reform proposals.

As the issues you raise fall within the scope of the review into Australia's Future Tax System, the Treasurer has asked me to respond to you on his behalf.

The issues you raised will be taken into account in the review.

You may be interested in reading the review's first consultation paper which will be released at the end of this year. It will outline the key issues which have emerged from the first round of consultations and set the foundation for further public consultation into 2009.

I also urge you to visit www.taxreview.treasury.gov.au and subscribe to receive news and updates, including information on how you can participate further throughout the review. Alternatively, you may wish to call the review information line on 1800 614 133.

Thank you again for your participation.
