

I believe ALL licensed mechanics should be able to access complete information about any vehicle they are servicing; both technical and historical.

Current restrictions create a monopoly for dealers but can also give rise to serious safety issues.

Allowing access is very long overdue.

ALAN COURT

