

My name is Jane-Louise of the family Nelson-Harris, I am a Commonwealth National and I am writing today to voice my total and unequivocal object to the implementation of any legislation to restrict the use of cash, as is being proposed in the Currency (Restrictions on the use of cash) Bill 2019.

It is nothing more than the ongoing removal of people's rights to quiet enjoyment of their lives and it is undemocratic, tyrannical and abusive in its very nature.

There is no possible way that it will have the effect that is being purported by the bill, it is just an underhanded way to tighten the noose on the necks of everyday law abiding Australians.

It has been proven in other countries that the way to reduce the black economy is to reduce taxes and Government regulation, the countries with the largest black economies also have the highest taxes and Government regulation, and this is not a coincidence.

The push by Government to limit cash and implement a cashless society by stealth is obvious and it seems like the Australia of today is becoming more and more like a communist country, not the country so many of our service people fought and died for.

It is not my will that this bill; Currency (Restrictions on the use of cash) Bill 2019, be passed or even be put up for consideration.
