

How could I forget the offshore conference angle!!

Considering Australia and New Zealand are a fraction of the world economy [and often it is cheaper to go to Singapore etc] we think it is important to visit the financial hubs in Asia to understand what is happening in our part of the world. We all know Australia's financial future lays in Asia and we consider it very relevant to visit these areas. Needless to say we oppose it.

Regards.

Peter Johnston

Executive Director

ASSOCIATION OF INDEPENDENTLY OWNED FINANCIAL PLANNERS