

Dear Sir, Madam,

Can you explain why government would give superannuation tax concessions to people earning above $200,000?

Whilst people earning below this amount pay a larger amount of tax on their super account earnings.

Surely this should be more equitable?

Regards

Rob Cottrell

0458515724