

Hi there,

I would like to see more scrutiny towards the 15% tax rate in superannuation as applying this rate to people of all incomes in superannuation is incredibly unfair to low income earners who need it most and worsens inequality. Please consider lowering this tax rate for low income earner and increasing it for extreme high income earners. Allowing superannuation be a tax haven for the super rich is not in line with Australian values.

Kind Regards,

Sean Fitzpatrick