

To whom it may concern,

Please cap the tax concessions that individuals can receive in a similar way to the age pension. Although I personally earn enough to benefit from the superannuation tax concessions available to the wealthy, I am strongly opposed to the way super can be used to avoid taxation. In the interests of a more equal society and under the principle of progressive taxation I urge you to apply a reasonable maximum to these concessions.

Regards
Ian Hristoforidis