

I am writing to ask you to reform the superannuation system so tax concessions are no longer skewed so that they are regressive in nature. The system must be reformed so that tax concessions instead are progressive in nature and thus benefit all taxpayers.

Yours,

David Leys