

I am just a simple person so please forgive me. But I don't understand how millionaires can receive more financial support, assistance and tax breaks then someone like me who earns under the average wage. Keep super compulsory, keep increasing the amount but stop providing so many tax breaks to people who don't need it.

Jonathan Skelton