

As a low-income Australian with a modest superannuation package, I would like to see fairness brought to the taxing of superannuation benefits.

Please introduce a progressive tax to these, so that the wealthy pay more than a flat 15% on their super earnings, and the poor pay less, much like the taxation system outside the superannuation system.

Sincerely,

Joshua Winterson