

TREASURY PORTFOLIO OVERVIEW

Ministers and portfolio responsibilities

The Treasury portfolio undertakes a range of activities aimed at achieving strong sustainable economic growth for the good of Australians. This entails the advice to portfolio Ministers as well as the effective implementation and administration of policies that fall within the portfolio Ministers' responsibilities.

The Treasury portfolio comprises 17 entities in the general government sector.

The Department of the Treasury is the Australian Government's pre-eminent economic adviser. Treasury provides advice, analysis and legislation to Government to deliver economic policies and programs, supporting the effective management of the Australian economy.

The Australian Bureau of Statistics is Australia's official statistical entity. It provides statistics on a wide range of economic, environmental, population and social matters, covering government, business and the community in general.

The Australian Competition and Consumer Commission is an independent statutory authority which administers the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 and performs functions under other Commonwealth legislation and State and Territory Competition Policy Reform Acts.

The Australian Office of Financial Management is responsible for the management of Australian Government debt and financial assets.

The Australian Prudential Regulation Authority is the financial supervisor responsible for the prudential regulation of the banking, other deposit taking, insurance and superannuation industries.

The Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) is Australia's corporate, markets, financial services and credit regulator. It is responsible for consumer protection and market integrity. As part of its remit, ASIC also regulates investment management and superannuation, insurance, deposit taking, financial reporting, auditors and insolvency practitioners. ASIC promotes investor and consumer trust and confidence, fair and efficient markets and provides efficient registration services.

The Australian Taxation Office is the Australian Government's principal revenue collection agency and administers Australia's tax system and significant aspects of Australia's superannuation system. It administers legislation governing tax, superannuation and the Australian Business Register and supports the delivery of government benefits to the community.

The Commonwealth Grants Commission provides advice to the Australian Government on the equitable distribution of GST revenue to State and Territory governments.

The Infrastructure and Project Financing Agency provides independent commercial and financial advice to support the delivery of Australian Government infrastructure projects and programs.

The Inspector-General of Taxation seeks to improve the administration of the tax laws for the benefit of all taxpayers.

The National Competition Council is an independent advisory body for all Australian governments that advises and makes recommendations under the National Access Regime and recommendations and decisions in relation to natural gas pipelines.

The National Housing Finance and Investment Corporation's objective is to improve housing outcomes by operating an affordable housing bond aggregator to provide loans to registered community housing providers financed by the issue of bonds on the commercial market; and a National Housing Infrastructure Facility to provide loans, grants and investments to overcome impediments to the provision of housing that is due to the lack of necessary infrastructure.

The Office of the Auditing and Assurance Standards Board's objective is to develop, issue and maintain in the public interest, principle-based, independent auditing and assurance standards for all sectors of the Australian economy that meet user needs, contribute to the development of international auditing and assurance standards and assist in maintaining confidence in the Australian economy, including its capital markets.

The Office of the Australian Accounting Standards Board's role is to develop, issue and maintain principle-based independent financial reporting standards for all sectors of the Australian economy that meet user needs, contribute to the development of international accounting standards and assist in maintaining confidence in the Australian economy, including its capital markets.

The Productivity Commission is the Australian Government's independent research and advisory body on a range of economic, social and environmental issues a ffecting the welfare of Australians.

The Royal Australian Mint manufactures and sells circulating coins to meet the coinage needs of the Australian economy, and collector coins and other minted products for Australia and foreign countries.
