Hi Jenny and Pip,

For the discussion on Wednesday morning, where the team has got to over the past week. The key document is issues for consideration.

We also have a helpful PC contribution that we are talking through with s and others tomorrow.

Hi s 47F,

The range of analytical notes you have done on JobKeeper are excellent and informative. They offer fresh insights that are not available from any other sources, and some of the analysis is very clever.

That's probably enough for now. I will have a smaller second round of queries to send through tomorrow.

Please call me tomorrow to discuss. My day is pretty clear, report drafting, but we do need to talk about what of the above is feasible within the allotted time left.

Many thanks, I really appreciate your help and expertise on this work.
