

Demand for Post Office Banks

Dear committee, As an Australian citizen, I request that you as a committee make the recommendation that Australia Post be nominated as a community Bank.

The intention being to stop the strangle hold the big 4 private banks have on the money supply. Also it would provide more banking opportunities for people to utilise the banks as the post offices would be open longer and more often.

Thank you for considering this.

Michael Hoey