

We need a regional bank

To anyone who cares about Australian citizens present and future generations. We the people need a Australian bank not and be slaves to foreign interest that dictate and profit for their self interest! It not working our living standards are sinking and future generations deserve better.