13	18/02/2022	23/02/2022	Lunch at a function to celebrate International Women's Day	s 22	Beasley Intercultural - Tamerlaine Beasley	I have been offered a place at a table for lunch to celebrate International Women's Day. The event is being run by UN Women Australia and the table is being hosted by Beasley Intercultural. Tickets cost $140 per person. I have detailed my professional connections to Tamerlaine Beasley who invited me in an email and also plans to manage the connection to an international diplomat who will be at the table.	$140.00	We are not using Beasley Intercultural for any training at the moment and have not approached them as part of any of our current (or previous) Rf's. Given the nature of the L&D we source it is unlikely that Beasley Intercultural would be an appropriate supplier. However they currently provide courses and programs through the APS Academy and so we may use them in the future. It is a lunch and so not able to be given to the organisation. I am keen to attend the lunch to continue the stakeholder relationship I have with Beasley Intercultural and also connect with others at the table, many of whom are in the APS.
