

---

We object to the proposed legislation changes.

We believe the draft legislation is inequitable to Australian Companies and shareholders and it could inadvertently impact situations of legitimate company operations.

If passed , it's application would also unfairly burden Australian investors with retrospective tax debts to be paid at a time of economic uncertainty.

Yours sincerely Philip & Carol Brunt