

Hi

We are deemed low income self financing retirees and we are upset with the federal government's proposal to recover franking credits retrospectively from our super funds.

We are already having negative returns from our super in the current market downturn and the proposal will be a double whammy for us in this inflationary time.

Grateful for your reconsideration of the proposed legislation.

Thks

Alan n cheng