

To whom it may concern

I write this email to advise that we object to the proposed changes to the franking credit legislation currently under consideration. My wife and I are retirees and we do rely on this income to live on. Especially problematic is the backdating of the change when the Government has no mandate for it. Our contact details are this email address.

Yours sincerely

Joseph & Marcelle Calleja