

We object to the proposed legislation changes.

We are retired and in pension phase in our SMSF. To lose our franking credits would impact us severely.

To even consider introducing retrospective legislation such as this ,which will impact on those of us who have worked hard all our lives and who have avoided relying on government pensions, is disgraceful.

RND Cassels

KM Cassels