

Dear Director,

Thanks for the opportunity to submit a response to the above mentioned legislation.

I object to the proposed legislation changes.

I believe the draft legislation is inequitable to Australian companies and shareholders, especially self-funded retirees like myself. It could inadvertently impact situations of legitimate company operations.

Please do not go ahead with this legislation.

Sincerely

Ray Cupido