

Dear Director ,

I am writing to advise you that I object to the proposed changes to the legislation.

This is another example of cumbersome government regulation of legitimate business activity.

It will have a detrimental effect on business activity , capital raising and business financial management in Australia.

The proposal to impact businesses and shareholders retrospectively is outrageous.

This must not be allowed to happen.

Yours sincerely

Lyle Eder