

I am 93 years old. I have never had any super. I am totally against the proposed legislation.

I have a few shares which reduces my pension. The income from these shares plus franking credits enables me to live.

I do not smoke, drink alcohol or go out to restaurants. I have quite large medical bills annually.

Yours faithfully,

Douglas Fuller Harcourt Freeman