

Labor has never learnt they will lose the next election
With the proposed changes to the retrospective amendment
Can labor promise that there will not be any more changes to the Frankie Credit act.
You don't realize the power of the grey vote will kick you out of office
As they don't trust the labor party because of the retrospective of the change
What other tax have you got in mind that we do not know of which is Retrospective.
George georges