

I object to the proposed legislation changes and in particular the lack of timing and full information to those living and working as self funded retirees I have been retired and self funded for 13 years having been self employed in the painting industry If this legislation is passed it could burden Australian investors with retrospective tax debts
Yours sincerely Maxwell Henderson

Sent from my iPhone