

---

Dear Sir.

I appreciate being able to respond to the proposed legislation changes.

I object to these changes as the basic principle relative to the franking regime is to avoid double taxation on company earnings.

If the application were to be passed, it would unjustly add burden to Australian investors, in particular with retrospective tax debts, to be paid at any future time.

Sincerely,

Pauline Hull.

---