
I am sending this email to protest this attack on franking credits. To backdate any legislation that affects retirees is akin to treachery. Attack franking credits but do not backdate. Date from inception so people can plan the way ahead. I feel there is an other agenda here!

I agree with the Wilson Assett Management submission and wish to use that as my submission as I

Regards,
Brian Marsden

Sent from my iPad