

the retrospectivity of the change is not warranted and is just a money grab. the proposed legislation is a double tax grab. the labour should have been honest with the aust public and announced this legislative change as part platform/ agenda prior to the election. Craig Mitchell.