

We live off our dividends and our franking credits. We don't have an aged pension, so how will this affect us? I don't fully understand this move by the Labor party, but I'm smelling something bad is about to happen.

Damn governments always attacking retirees. Sick of it.

Please explain. Not happy with what I've read. regards Kevin Kerri Moore