

As a self funded retirees My husband and I are shocked by the labour governments plans to make such sudden changes.

We have paid all taxes not draw on the age pension and are now penalised with retrospective taxes going back 6 years

Can you just get real the accountants will have a field day trying to sort this out

Please slow this down and remember what happened last time the labour government messed with franking credits

Anne + Greg Picot

Tasmania