

To Whom it may concern,

We are self funded retirees and if you take away our franking credits we will need to go on the pension. We have worked hard to build our assets so we could retire and live a comfortable life without depending on the government. We think it is very unfair that you change the rules on us when we are at this stage of our lives. Please rethink your strategy,

Thank you

Tim & Sue Robinson